WITHIAM FOURTH DISTRICT INTERNAL DRAINAGE BOARD

EMPLOYEES CODE OF CONDUCT

The Board's Code of Conductios set out below. It covers the main standards of technology the Board duty to comply with the standards of behavior and performance required by the Blood and to A breach of the Board's Rules may result in disciplinary action. A single instance of gross respondent may result to discreased without ration. Examples of respondent, which the Branch

BOARD RULES Attendance and Timelessping at committee with the reduc retaining to notification of absorber out out in Section 7 paragraph 7 of the b) arrive at each promptly, ready to start each at their contracted starting times.

The Board reserves the right not to pay employees in respect of working time but because of poor

Personnel goor timekeeping may result in disciplinary action.

Employees are required to

by comply with all reasonable management instructions fi. It encure that any queries received from the media are referred immediately to management.

is to take all recessary steps to calleguard the Board's public image and preserve positive relationships with: ii) Members of the public in Other Strants